Livro: Rebuilding After Disasters: from emergency to sustainability

Preface
Hernando de Soto

1. Rebuilding after Disasters: from emergency to sustainability
Gonzalo Lizarralde, Cassidy Johnson and Colin Davidson

2. Post-disaster Low-cost house solutions: learning from the poor
Gonzalo Lizarralde

3. Appropriate Technology for Post-disaster Reconstruction
Rohit Jigyasu

4. Planning for Temporary Housing
Cassidy Johnson

5. Multi-actor Arrangements and Project Management
Colin Davidson

6. Stakeholder Participation in Post-disaster Reconstruction Programmes – New Orleans’ Lakeview: a case study
Isabelle Mamet and James Amdal

7. Surviving the Second Tsunami: land rights in the face of buffer zones, land grabs and development
Graeme Bristol

8. Who Governs Reconstruction? Changes and continuity in policies, practices and outcomes
Jennifer Duyne Barenstein

Alicia Sliwinski

10. User Requirements and Responsible Reconstruction
Nese Dikmen

11. Space and Place after Natural Disasters and Forced Displacement
Roger Zetter and Camillo Boano

12. The Importance of Institutional and Community Resilience in Post-disaster Reconstruction
Lee Bosher

13. From Complexity to Strategic Planning for Sustainable Reconstruction
Gonzalo Lizarralde, Cassidy Johnson and Colin Davidson