Hola, Everybody!

This is Kaypacha with the weekly Pele Report. This one is for October 4th of 2017.

**Kaypacha is screen sharing Solar System Scope software.*

*Let us zoom in a little bit on our reality. Coming from deep space, first we see Eris, the newly discovered planet. I am not going to be talking so about much today. Let's come in a little closer, a little closer, a little closer. I got a new program, check it out... new toys to play with, it's raining outside. (*laughing) Here you can see it, what I've been talking about. I have the time set for October 5th, that's tomorrow at 11:40 am, PDT for the full Moon. There's the Moon, Earth, Sun, but what else? Oh, my Goddess, there's Mercury back there. (*laughing) Yeah, baby.*

Not only is it a full Moon, Moon opposite Sun, Earth in the middle and we have a Sun/Mercury conjunction and that is going on all week and on Sunday it's exact. The Earth is going to move a little farther along here and come into this direct alignment with the Sun and Mercury. Even more so than that, very amazing these days as you can see here, Earth in direct alignment with Venus and Mars. I talked to you about this Venus/Mars conjunction that it was going on all week. Well it's exact tomorrow, Thursday, at exactly the same time as the full Moon. So, we have a full Moon and a Venus/Mars conjunction on Thursday, October 5th.

Not only that, there's so much going on here, it's really intense, man. I'm sure your feeling and I will explain what it's about. You can see that Saturn is in an exact square from the Earth to Venus and Mars. If you drew a line here and a line to there, it would be 90 degrees. So, this Venus/Mars conjunction in alignment is also in square to the planet Saturn. So, that is another factor that needs to be taken into consideration.

As things move along here, we're going to see that Venus is going to continue moving and into an exact square to Saturn on Sunday. Next Wednesday, Mars will move a little farther and be in exact square to Saturn. This Venus/Mars conjunction goes on for all of last week, all of this week, into next week. The square to Saturn and after Saturn... but what we don't show here is Black Moon Lilith is also up there at 28 degrees of Sagittarius, Saturn is at 22 degrees.

After Venus and Mars square Saturn, they will come into an exact square to Black Moon Lilith. But really, I'm just going to put them together. So basically, Venus/Mars square Saturn/Black Moon Lilith.

The other aspect, Pluto is squared to the full Moon. This full Moon is square Pluto, omg! Monday, the Sun exactly squares Pluto. Tomorrow right after the full Moon, bam, the Moon squares Pluto. If things were not intense enough, Pluto just throws in another factor to consider.

Last but not least, I'm going to be doing a whole video on Jupiter. Jupiter is going to be moving into the sign of Scorpio. Jupiter will go into Scorpio, as of October 10th. Ok, let me look at the camera, talk to you guys about what all this indicates on planet Earth, in our spiritual, mental, emotional, physical lives...

Ok, I'm just going to do this thing before I drive myself nuts! This is Virgo like overload, overtime. It's taking me all day to do this frickin' Pele Report, man. Ahh! Analyze, get it right. You can't go outside. Stand here... look at this... the lighting is wrong, omg... the sound! I mean drive yourself nuts. And you can apply the same kind of worry, concern, anxiety, desire for perfection to job, relationships, moment to moment, diet, food. It's like, you can never be good enough. I mean it's like, kick yourself in the butt! Virgo is a masochistic sign, right? It's where you don't feel worthy and you don't feel good enough. We can all be kind of, I think of that, Da Vinci Code? You know that guy that's always whipping himself. (*laughing) I'm ready to just whip myself. I'm just not good enough! And the square to Saturn in Sagittarius, judgment. Self judgment, judgment of others, judgment of the situation, judgment of the relationship. I mean it's just like, wow!

It's really tricky now not get to lost in guilt and shame and unworthiness, and not good enough and beat myself up and have patience, that's the upside of it. And understand at the same time, not to just let yourself off the hook, jump back over to Neptune in Pisces and escape. And just go, 'Oh it's too hard. Oh, it takes too long. Oh, it's too much.' Because this is part of the issue, this part of the problem that we are going to be facing for a few generations to come with the Age of Aquarius. The technology gives us what? Instant gratification, instant gratification. You push the button and on comes the movie. You go here, you swipe through a bunch of faces and pick one and you're going out with them. It's like, instant, instant, instant, everything happening so fast, so fast, so fast and that's what?

Aries. Aries is fast. What are we having? Full Moon in Aries. I want to read you the Sabian Symbol for this full Moon. Very interesting, particularly with what happened in Las Vegas, Nevada. Let's just take a look at this. "An unexploded bomb reveals an unsuccessful social protest." This is the image for the 13th degree of Aries, where the Moon is going to come into that full Moon phase. I said it before, two weeks ago, the new Moon was in Virgo, just before the Sun went into Libra, so that set the tone for the whole month. So, we have this whole Virgo month. But now we have the full Moon, it's kind of a culmination of what started the seed that started two weeks ago.

Anyway, the keynote for the Sabian Symbol is, "An immature evaluation of the possibility of transforming suddenly the status quo. The symbol pictures the result of a particular attempt to resolve the conflict between two concepts of order. Resolution by violence fails because the ego power at this stage of the process of individualization is far too strong." Big ego, immature ego. "The state thwarts, Saturn thwarts attempts popular revolution. Because these are premature expressions of a consciousness which is not free. But can only react wildly to constraint and a central ruling power. As in God/Goddess... source... life. It is thus a symbol of immature refusal to conform in the name of an overidealistic desire for harmony and peace. A negative attempt at reconciling the spiritual ideal and the very earthly reality." Let's not forget Venus and Mars just opposed Neptune. And I talked about that as this idealism, this spiritual longing for no boundaries, love, union, freedom. And then in comes into square Saturn.

So, now what we're having at the same time is this Venus/Mars conjunction square Saturn. Saturn is saying, 'Grow up. Saturn is saying, 'You do need to conform. There are universal laws, whether they're gravity or taxes, moral, ethical laws.' And this Moon in Aries is this other, instinctive animal, powerful force that is immature, spontaneous, in a way it's very innocent. But still, the bull in the china shop can be totally innocent and destroy all the china in the shop. (*laughing) Even like being innocent is not an excuse any more.

Virgo wants to get it straight, Virgo wants to get it right and Virgo wants to get it together. And this 3rd quarter square, it's a 270-degree square from Saturn, it's saying that it's necessary now to mature, to become more objective, to look at our lives, our bodies, our diets. This is Virgo, our diet, our daily routine, our work life, our co-workers. Really look at this whole big picture and purify it, purge it, use discrimination and discernment. Saturn says also, to have patience and endurance. This is a long-term process that we are on.

And Jupiter moving into Scorpio and even this full Moon squaring Pluto. What's that bringing in? We're entering the tunnel, Jupiter going into Scorpio, it's going into the dark. It's going into transformation. It's going into alchemical surrender and release to bigger, wider, greater forces beyond our control to learn something and become even more than we could ever be alone or by ourselves.

Let's look at it. The Sun is in Libra and Jupiter has been in Libra. This is relationship and partnership. That's why the mantra for today has to do with love, with partnership, with relationship. It just came to me the other day, it's easy to think you've got yourself together or you got the world under control or you've got life managed when you're alone, when you're single. You can charge forward and do whatever you want and have this illusion that you have no shadow. You may have that illusion because you have no mirror showing you your shadow.

The growth and the opportunity for evolution this past year of Jupiter in Libra, just grab a partner and dance. Because this is a year to dance. And now Jupiter moving into Scorpio is taking that dance to the next level and really confronting all of our deeper unconscious, subconscious issues, suppressed shadow elements. I'll do a whole hour-long video on Jupiter in Scorpio along with a few other changes that are happening.

This is a very good time, let's look at the upside. This is a time where if you put in your time and you put in your work and you really put forth your effort and you grow up and become more objective and look and take into consideration the results and the impact of your actions, thoughts, deeds and words on other people. This doesn't have to be romantic relationships, it can also be business partnerships. It can also be a time where finances... Venus has to do with money, this is a time where it's not coming easy - it's not flowing. Virgo doesn't flow. Virgo says, 'Now just a minute. A little bit here, a little there, figure this and figure that, fix that. But the positive side of that is what?

Fine art! (*laughing) Turning life into a fine art. Virgo makes jewelry and sculpture. Takes this world and takes the spiritual principals and applies them to the earthly reality rather than just, 'Oh, it just should happen. Oh, you know it will be fine. Oh, it's all good.' No, no, no, no! Virgo says, 'Just a frickin' minute. And Saturn in a way works with Virgo and says, 'Yeah, just a minute.' (*laughing) You've got to become more of an elder... become the King Arthur... become the Mother Teresa. Kind of take a few steps back, get out of your Aries self and your narcissistic preoccupation with I/me/my. My pleasures, my desires, my needs and step up to the plate. Virgo is service, giving.

It's like a great time to get stuff done. To fix things, to bring order to life. To find your boundaries and within those boundaries you can do more even what you thought. And your even better off than before. Alright, trying to remember the frickin mantra...

The Mantra:

It's time to grow up and do the work,
It takes to be with you,
For Love teaches me what I need to learn,
To make our dreams come true.

You want to look at this even with Libra being the other. It doesn't have to be a one on one partnership, it can be with society. It can be with all our brothers and sisters. It can be with the world and the Age of Aquarius and the whole community to make our dreams come true. And the 'you' can be plural. You can even make the 'you' source or spirit. It's time for me to grow up and learn what I need to be with you - spirit, the divine, the universe, the trees, Mother Nature. The 'you' doesn't have to be just this partnership or whatever... it works that way too! (*laughing)

Love is teaching me what I need to know to make our dreams come true... to make the worlds dreams come true... to make the new paradigm come true... to make the spiritual reality on Earth for each other, together!

One more time:

It's time to grow up and do the work,
It takes to be with you,
For love teaches me what I need to learn,
To make our dreams come true.

Namaste, Aloha, So Much Love!

Kaypacha
