Hola!

This is Kaypacha with the weekly Pele Report and this is December 20th of 2017. The day before the Solstice and I just don't feel like going anywhere. So, I'm standing on the roof and just going around in a circle here on the rooftop, because what? The Sun is at the top of the chart, look at that chart at the beginning. It's Zero degrees of Capricorn and what's there? Saturn!

Sun conjuncts Saturn tomorrow at the very top, the very top. Capricorn is the mountain goat at the top of the mountain. So, we're all climbing to the top.

What else is there? OMG, Black Moon Lilith. The Sun is conjunct Black Moon Lilith as soon as it gets into Capricorn, but it's going to be exact next Tuesday. Besides that, we can all give a great hurrah that Mercury has gone direct as of Friday. He does go back to 13 degrees and squares Neptune and stations there right at 13 degrees in square to Neptune before he does go direct. But, it's been a long Mercury retrograde if you ask me. (*laughing)

What else is happening? Well, undoubtedly, we can also see if you look at that chart, that on Sunday, Venus joins the Sun/Saturn/Black Moon Lilith/Pluto, all in Capricorn, OMG! Then on Monday she comes along and conjuncts with Saturn. We've got all this stuff going on here at the same time as, I would say the big overarching event that has been going on for a while, this transit of Jupiter squaring the Moon's Nodes. Mars is coming up and it's really basically conjunct Jupiter these days, it's getting closer and closer. Jupiter is going to be squaring the Moon's Nodes at 15 degrees Scorpio, the Moon's Nodes are at 15 Aquarius/15 Leo. I want to talk about that, I want to talk about all kinds of stuff. There's so much going on, as you can see, there's so many aspects happening here these days. Our lives are so busy and so full and it's just like a frickin' wild time. Let me look at the camera and just talk a little more about what all of this means.

Okay, everybody! What's going on? Or should I say, what's not going on? Talk about busy, busy, busy. Duties, responsibilities, obligations, demands, whoa! It's all coming up! (*laughing) I mean it's too much to talk about it in a little Pele Report. I'm actually doing an entire two-month e-Course with the Dream Team on Saturn in Capricorn. It's going to be there for over two years. We're going to have to get used to this kind of energy. It's very powerful and it's very deep. There's a lot to it and a lot going on. Check Facebook or check my website if you want to check it out. We're doing a free Webinar explaining more about what we're going to be teaching through January and February. That is on Saturday, December 23rd, at 10AM PST. Anyway, check out the website, man, this is the Pele Report. (*laughing)

Karma - Saturn is the Lord of Karma. In fact that's what I'm going to be talking about in my module of that course is that Saturn is the Lord of Karma. I know that a lot of us lightworkers like to think that there's no Karma. (*laughing) Right? In your dreams when you go into the 4th or 5th, 6th, 13th dimensions, yeah, there's no Karma. (*laughing) However, you have a physical body, baby! We are here in time and space, time and space and Chronos, this material, 3rd dimensional world, guess what? There is Karma!

Quantum physics relates to multi-dimensional realities outside of this 3rd dimension. But Newtonian physics for every action, there's an equal and opposite reaction - that's a total Saturn principal. That total Saturn principal, Newtonian physics, we use to build bridges, build building, build houses. Newtonian physics applies. Action/reaction applies when it comes to this world, when it comes to business, this is all about building a solid foundation, sending our roots deep.

You'll notice and look at that chart at the beginning of the Pele Report, what do you see? All the planets are up, up, up. There's only Uranus below the horizon. Up, up, up, is out, out, out. It's head, it's thinking, it's business, it's objective, it's maturity. It's looking at the long-term effects of things – this is Saturn in Capricorn. It's becoming the chief, the authority. The mandala, the Sabian Symbol for Zero degrees of Capricorn is, "An Indian Chief claims power from the assembled tribe." Keynote: "The power and responsibility implied in any claim for leadership." This chief of the tribe is powerful, and this Mars/Jupiter in Scorpio is power. This is a huge test. Are we able and capable to manage responsibly, our positions in the world, our relationships? Our institutions are going to be tested, particularly now, but over the next couple of years. This is like this powerful point where we are stepping into being co-creators of this reality. Not victims, not children, not naïve, innocent by-standers - no, no, no! It's up to each one of us as individuals to become more and more responsible for carrying that weight, we're going to carry that weight a long time.

It is up to each one of us to become these Capricornian leaders. We're going to have these Jupiter/Saturn/Pluto conjunction in 2020 in Capricorn. Change of leadership, change of the guard, change of the paradigm - this is why we incarnated. So yeah, we are getting checked out. I always look at Saturn transits as, "Graduation!"

So, the Sun coming into this Solstice point, the Sun coming into this Capricorn/Saturn and the fact that Saturn is there is the gatekeeper for the Sun, it's like really super powerful. It's time for each one of us to what? Be authentic, be in our integrity, be open and honest and not be wearing the mask of the persona. This is the tricky part and this is what Mars and Jupiter are doing over there in Scorpio. And in fact, that they are square the Moon's Nodes, let's look at that. We're coming out of that South Node in Aquarius. It's the visionary, the future, the prophet. And we're coming in and bringing in that vision. In fact, I am doing a talk on Facebook tomorrow, with Stephen and Sarah who made the Envision Festival. I'm teaching a whole workshop this February, on water, water, Pisces/Scorpio/Cancer, where Jupiter/Neptune is and Chiron for a little bit more – and everything is going on with the water!

We evolve through our feelings. And this is really an important part that I'm going to come back to, as soon as I get back to where I was before. (*laughing) This whole energy time of taking off the persona, taking off the mask. Before we can come to that North Node in Leo, which is our powerful, creative, manifestation of the life-force in this world, in this planet, with our children, with our creations, with our dances, with our movies, with our institutions. Before we can get there, right now, the universe is saying, we've got to do Jupiter in Scorpio. And Mars is coming up, we've got to do Mars in Scorpio. We need to face our shadow, we need to look down deep. We need to come to an acknowledgement and awareness. We need to tap into the deepest roots, the deepest power within ourselves, is that Kundalini force, at the base of the spine. We need to come out of our heads and out of all of this business, Facebook, Instagram, and being screen people and feel our deeper, deeper truth.

And Venus square Chiron right now, Chiron is soul purpose. Venus squaring Chiron right now and Sagittarius says, it's time. This has been going on for a while to really deepen every action, every word, every conversation, every post has to be purposeful about what we're really all about and what we are really here for. It's like, no more fooling around, no more gossiping, no more trying to get attention, no more trying to make the money, no more trying to look good. It's like, get into your frickin' purpose, man! (*laughing) And that purpose is inner-transformation and inner-letting go. I did the whole video on Jupiter in Scorpio. Scorpio is the end of the individual ego, in preparation for a transpersonal consciousness, born into Sagittarius.

So, Mars and Jupiter are coming through and it's like, it's not about you, it's not about me. It's not about how great I am, how smart I am, how pretty I am, how rich I am or whatever. So, we can feel the pain, we can feel our shame. Sun is coming up to Lilith, Lilith is shame, what are we ashamed of? Facing that shame and our humanness and our vulnerability, Venus/Chiron. And how weak we are and how incomplete we are, how messed up we are. Each and every single one of us is dealing with how messed up we are (*laughing). Some of us mess up our lives completely, man.

It's time to just face it and go on. This is part of the process of mastery. This is part of facing our demons, facing the guardian of the threshold. It's like, yes, you are a human being, and, you've got a job to do. You've been elected the chief. It's like, whether you think you're ready or not, your unconscious soul is pushing you, saying, you are ready. As incomplete, or imperfect, messed up or self-judgmental, or judgmental of others, lost in space, you feel you are... sorry, man. Sun/Saturn, Pluto in Capricorn, this is the time. You've got to set that stuff aside. You've got to come into peace with yourself. The mantra for today, becoming at peace, coming into your core, with whatever spiritual practice you've got. And it just really come to peace with your shame, with your guilt, with your mess up, with your screw ups, with your imperfections. You are who you are and it's time to go forward.

So yeah, things are falling away. Scorpio is loss, man. Jupiter is big, we could have big losses. We've got to trust, we've got have faith. We have a beautiful trine to that Neptune in Pisces that says, there's a bigger plan. There's grace, there's magic, there's mystery. Come into that peaceful place like a tree and just be, just be. And the way will be made clear, the way will be shown unto you – that is like the message!

The Mantra:

Like an old oak tree in the forest, on a very windy day,
My leaves and branches get tossed about, some even falling away,
I stay here centered in my core, while all around me swirls,

Feeling my strength as my roots run deep,
I am at peace with the world.

This is a very serious time as some of you can be feeling very serious. Thank God, Mercury is going direct, eh? So much reflection, Saturn is reflection. Mercury retrograde: reflect, redo, review, recommit, whatever. Mercury is going direct and the Sun is going to pass up Saturn and yeah it going to hit Lilith, but Sun and Lilith are going to join together.

One more time:

Like an old oak tree in the forest, on a very windy day,
My leaves and branches get tossed about, some even falling away,
I stay here centered in my core, while all around me swirls,
Feeling my strength as my roots run deep,
I am at peace with the world.

The North Node of Saturn and Pluto is in Cancer. Come home... come home to yourself, come home to the feeling. Come into the core and let all the madness that is happening in the world disappear. Don't take it personally, you don't have to own it.

May you stay centered in your core and at peace with the world.

Namaste, Aloha, So Much Love!
