Hola, Mi Amigos!

This is Kaypacha with the weekly Pele Report for January 24th of 2018 and the Moon is in Taurus. I don't know if you can see those vacas. We've got the cows and the bulls back there. There's one Jonathan Livingston cow over there on the left. (*laughing) He's all by himself. Sometimes they're up here, sometimes they're down there. This is up right behind where I live.

Anyway, now this Moon, the Moon goes into Gemini. She is square the Sun, our 1st quarter square, today. And then, she goes into Gemini, sorry about that. After that she moves into Cancer on Sunday and opposes Pluto and all that happy stuff. And then by Tuesday, she's out of Cancer into Leo, getting ready for the great, total Lunar Eclipse on Wednesday. Oh yes, the 31st at 11 degrees, 37 minutes, of Leo and Aquarius, I will be talking about that next week. Well maybe a little bit today, because it's all going on.

So, I'm up here and I came out of the creeks and the forest and the trees, why? Because Mars is going into Sagittarius, baby! On Friday, Sagittarius, the great outdoors, the mountain, the trees, the forests, nature and natural law – frickin' awesome, yeah! In addition to that, today Mercury is conjunct Pluto. So, we have a little bit of a polarization, down deep thinking. Then of course in a couple of days, it picks up again, Mars goes into Sagittarius, that's going to be great.

Saturday, Moon trines the Sun. And another big one there on Sunday, is that Mercury squares Oranus. It hits Pluto today, and then over the next few days basically, it's like the messenger that just kind of goes along and say's, 'Well, I'm going to have a little conference with Pluto here, pick up new information. And then, I'm going to throw it down to Uranus over there, in the last degrees of Aries.

What else do I want to talk about today? Venus is coming up and the Sun and Venus are basically traveling together for the next couple of weeks. Jupiter is still square the Moon's Nodes, I can talk a little bit about that. But the Sun and Venus, coming along here, are really coming to conjunct the South Node of the Moon. So, this total lunar Eclipse is actually opposite, not just the Sun, not just the South Node of the Moon, but also Venus.

And here we're coming up to, this is where I call "Meditation Rock", this is a great frickin' rock up here. It's nice and flat on the top. And a lot of times I just like to sit up there. Maybe I'll try to do the report up there. One way or the other, I'll talk at you from the other side of the camera.

Okay, let's do this thing. Where did we leave off last week? Major Tom was on the lifting pad, baby, in the rocket, ready to take off! I did get some complaints because I didn't do Pisces. Well, I didn't do Pisces because we're not in Pisces yet, we're in Aquarius. Venus is in Aquarius; the Sun went into Aquarius. In a couple of weeks, Mercury will be coming into Aquarius. South Node of the Moon is in Aquarius. I did a whole webinar on this Lunar Eclipse, Nodes going through Aquarius and Leo. And for my New Paradigm Community, you can check out getting into my community, it's like really awesome. There's all kinds of stuff going on in there, reading, questions and answer forums, videos, the Dream Team – it's all going on over there.

For today, I'm going to try to squeeze it all down, sum it all up. What the heck is Aquarius about? What is this time about? Last week I started getting into it a little bit, it is about venturing into the unknown. Aquarius is the 11th sign of the zodiac, it rules the 11th house of the zodiac, it's 11 out of 12. Like I said last week, I went all through it, Aquarius is about global, global consciousness, human consciousness, it's political, it's the United Nations, it's the World Wide Web, it's mathematics, it's astronomy and astrophysics. There's nothing personal about it. So, I talked about non-attachment. Major Tom leaving Earth, family, home, roots, everything behind to go out into the future, into the higher, higher realm, talk to the extraterrestrial intelligence. (*laughing)

So, that's what this time is about. If you got Aquarius in your chart, especially Moon, South Node of the Moon, Pluto in the 11th house, these kinds of signatures indicate past lifetimes, where you were what? Outside and that's what the mantra has to do with today, is being outside the matrix. When you're outside the game and you're not attached to winning or losing, you're not attached to power and glory or security. When you're not attached then you can really see completely, clearly and objectively what is going on, in the game! When you're in the game, when you're in the forest, you see the trees. When you're up, you see the whole forest and you see what's going on down there.

This is a stage in the evolutionary process that has to do with rebelling, rebelling against the consensus, rebelling against the status quo. From outside I see the future, I see beyond – Aquarius in the 11th house has to do with the future. From that spaceship, Major Tom is going to see that tiny, little planet get farther and farther away until it disappears by the time he gets to the Galactic Center. (*laughing)

So, things get smaller, things get reduced. But like in a scientific experiment and or under a microscope, it's like you can see into the little micro world from way up in that 3rd eye awakening, you can see the little humans crawling across the planet. See what they're doing to each other, see what they're doing to the planet. See who's evolving and who's not. (*laughing)

So, this is all about Aquarius and it's raising the bar, improving. We rebel against what is limiting, the patriarchy, the institutions, the laws or the rules that are limiting our free expressions, that are limiting us from being liberated.

And also, I have to bring in this other aspect, because it's the polarity to Leo. Self-interest. So, this is the axis of creativity, Leo is creative, Aquarius is this creative genius. This is the creativity axis. But Leo is about, 'I am the creator. I'm the star of the show. I am the one. I've got it happening. Life is pouring through me.' And that needs to be balanced by Aquarius. Aquarius is about the good of the future, like I said, the good of the community, the good of everybody else.

So, this is a time this week particularly with Jupiter squaring these Moon's Nodes in Scorpio and Venus conjuncting with the South Node of the Moon and the Sun. What's that about? A lot of it is about money, Scorpio is about money. Venus is about money, my money. Money can be where the rubber hits the road. (*laughing) Is it like, 'Is it my money or is it our money? Is it my planet or is it our planet?' This is the place and particularly with Mercury coming into Pluto. What's that?

Pluto can be obsessive, compulsive forms of behavior, because we are emotionally, deeply ingrained and attached, deep down within our soul. So, when Mercury comes around to Pluto, we can be having some obsessive, compulsive thought patterns. You know where the same thought process goes over and over. 'I want to write that email. I want to write that letter. I want to have that conversation.' That tape can run over and over and over again. Because it's getting fed juice, Kundalini, from Pluto is our emotional, deep soul, emotional consciousness. This is all about transformation. Pluto is evolution and transformation.

So, this is a time today of Mercury coming around and having deep, intense, Pluto is intensity, evolution and transformation through intense, what? Conversation, communication, uncovering. And what is this going to be about? Chances are, it's going to be about money. Chances are, it's going to be about possessions. About what's mine and what's ours. About what is yours, what is mine. If you're claiming something that is mine or I want to claim something you think is yours? This kind of energy is really powerful now.

We want to see money as energy and it's really a blessing and a curse. It's just like everything else, where we live in a polarized, dualistic consciousness of the ego and planet Earth, Saturn and time and space. We live in this world and living in this world is where we come into, money is this expression of our values, our priorities, what I value the most, what society values the most – the price goes up! When it becomes more popular, when it becomes more fashionable, it becomes more valuable.

So, all of this energy, this financial energy is an expression of an individual's priorities and an individual's values. And what we want to be doing in order to create the new paradigm, in order to create new community, is finding people who have the same values, who have the same priorities. Because then you're not going to run into financial hassles. People who value love, spirituality, oneness, community, nature, Mother Earth, you find these people and you're not going to be wanting to take your money, or spend your money on concrete things or destroying nature or something like that, because you have similar values. Birds of the feather flock together. And this is where Aquarius is about community. And the square is to this Jupiter in Scorpio. Do we share Scorpio values, 8th house, as opposed to the 2nd house? My values, my money, my resources. Jupiter is now saying that, collectively each and everyone of us can expand by combining through our resources and putting our money together, into bigger and bigger projects where we can do bigger and greater things.

So, this is a time, this is a week here of having some deep conversations. And this Mercury comes in to square Uranus, this weekend. Uranus is shock and surprise, awe, revelation. We can all have some profound revelations going on here, where other people as mirrors, show us our unconscious or subconscious intentions that very often have their roots in our feelings of insecurity or our feelings that were ingrained, conditioned in us through childhood.

As we move forward, this is a time of processing our past, processing our childhood, our past lives, all our limiting beliefs, our limiting values and coming out of fear. It's fear that leads us to greed. It's fear that leads us to possessiveness. It's fear that leads us to using other people's money, to accomplish our own ends.

The Mantra for this week:

From outside the matrix,
Objectively looking in,
I create solutions,
Where everyone can win.

Rebel... step back... don't be afraid of being criticized, ostracized... kicked out of the church, group or the community or whatever. It's like, step outside, take a step back from your relationships, your job, your business, your boss, your family or whatever. Step outside the matrix, look at what's going on. Then you can create positive solutions where the whole community, the whole family, the whole corporation where everyone can win. It is possible, it just takes tons of negotiations, tons of non-attachments, tons of cooperation.

This is like what it's all about here if we're moving into this new paradigm, where we're all going to be one and realize community. It starts with conversations. Not avoiding, denying, pretending that there's not differences. There are differences, we're all different. We don't want to bury those differences, we want to bring those differences up so we can create a bigger, wider container where all the differences are allowed expression. That's what the creative impulse is all about. Instead of trying to live in this little world where only so many people can be satisfied, the idea is to include everybody. But then what you have to do is expand the consciousness and be more creative so that everybody can be fully expressed, feel safe, feel held by the container, by the community. It's possible, but it's a challenge. And that our challenge not only for this week, but for the 2000-year Age of Aquarius that is just beginning, particularly with the Lunar Eclipse coming. And we have a Solar Eclipse following it. This is really going to be emphasized over this next month, in particular! Thanks for listening and wishing you the best of luck...

One more time:

From outside the matrix,
Objectively looking in,
I create solutions,
Where everyone can win.

Go for it!

Namaste, Aloha, So Much Love!

Kaypacha
