Dedication

This dedication is to the three people that helped me compile this book and information throughout the years of my learning in the arts of healing. First, this book is dedicated to Grand Master Choa Kok Sui, the foundation of all my knowledge, and the desire to help others unselfishly. Second, but not any lesser admiration, is to his wife Charlotte, that ever since the Grand Master's passing, she has shouldered the load of jealousy, hatred, and other human egos and carried on with his work regardless. A special admiration goes to this wonderful lady. And last, but not least, this dedication is to my wonderful wife, Baroness Maria Concetta Von Dangel, an angel of a woman that has stood beside me through health and in sickness, in richer or poorer. This woman is a saint, and I am so proud that she is alongside of me helping me through the days of toil and tribulations in helping others. A special thank you.

Solar, air and earth pranas to further enhance potency of charge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Do 5 cycles of pranic breathing</li> <li>- Direct your palms towards the crystal. Continue another 20 cycles as you charge the crystal</li> <li>- Simultaneously instruct the crystal to absorb the pranic energy being projected</li> <li>- Stabilise the crystal energy</li> <li>- Look for a quiet, clean area of grass in the sun to leave the crystal (with no people traffic nor over sewer lines).</li> <li>- After charging the crystal, mentally instruct the crystal to “absorb pranic energy from the sun, air and earth and continue absorbing pranic energy until it is instructed to stop”. Leave there throughout the day.</li> <li>- Then, collect the crystal and remember to instruct it to “stop” absorbing pranic energy.</li> </ul>
